MINUTES APPROVAL

I. ITEMS FOR DISCUSSION

Gary S. Brown, Statewide Elder Abuse Coordinator & Assistant Attorney General-in-Charge, New York State Office of the Attorney General, Westchester Regional Office discussed the current scams affecting our community. Various types of scams were discussed and it was advised to be vigilant when answering the phone, when you are unaware of the number calling, do not answer the call, your number may be shared with other scam callers and calls will continue. Do not provide any personal or financial information. Do not wire money or provide a prepaid debit card serial number. Report any such calls to the U.S. Treasury Inspector General for Tax Administration 800-366-4484. Another type of scam that has been reported to steal your identity from grandparents. Grandparents will receive a call stating that they are in trouble, scammers check the identity on social media pages to connect your relatives. Once confirmed that they request you to wire money to be transferred out of state or out of the country. All crimes should be reported to local law enforcement and the Office of the Attorney General- 800-771-7755 or www.ag.ny.gov. To protect your identity, use privacy settings on your social media. Limit the amount of personal information you make available. Only "friend" people you actually know. Use strong passwords on any online accounts. Don't share passwords with friends.
